

Woven USB A Cable with Magnetic Tips – Micro B, Type C, and iOS – 2 meters long

Product ID: 5653

Description

Some days we're feeling extra fancy here at the 'fruit warehouse, and we have a big soft spot for woven fabric cables.

Our latest addition to the collection is this 2-meter-long Black Magnetic USB A with Magnetic Tips for USB C, Lightning / iOS, and USB micro B! It's a luxurious cable that will make managing lots of dev boards or gadgets super easy.

The 'host part' of the cable has a USB A end and a dummy end that lets you swap the magnetic tips.

The real magic is on the device end, a removable magnetic end that lets you quickly connect or disconnect with magnetic alignment. It's like having a 'MagSafe' connector for everything. Works with any and all devices, for both data-sync and power, for 5V up to 2A.

Includes:

- 1 x 2 meter long black woven USB A cable with magnetic tip connector
- 1 x Magnetic USB Type-C Plug Tip
- 1 x Magnetic USB micro B Plug Tip
- 1 x Magnetic Lightning / iOS Plug Tip

Please note: This cable only carries the power and D+/D- data sync lines of USB A, not the extra set of pins on USB C and so are not compatible with Magnetic Right Angle USB Type C Adapter - 120W Data and Power , Magnetic USB Type-C Plug Tip, Magnetic USB micro B Plug Tip or Magnetic Lightning / iOS Plug Tip
